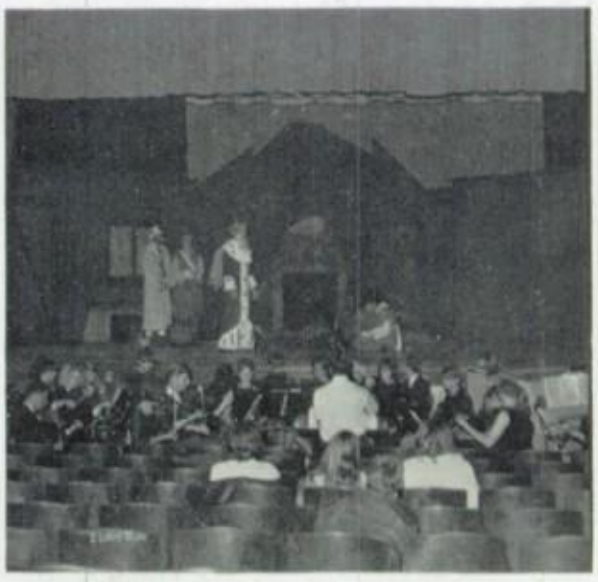
Various "happenings" occurred during the '66-'67 school year. Some were educational and some were social, but none will be forgotten. Each event will bring back unforgettable memories in years to come . . .

The "mod" year begins.

We had a Hank-ering for a rally.

Susan Spotless says—



Maestro, if you please.

. . . We will all remember victories and defeats, "loss of privileges," goals attained, and each will play a part in molding the character of those individuals who have benefited from these experiences.

Thank goodness for lunch!

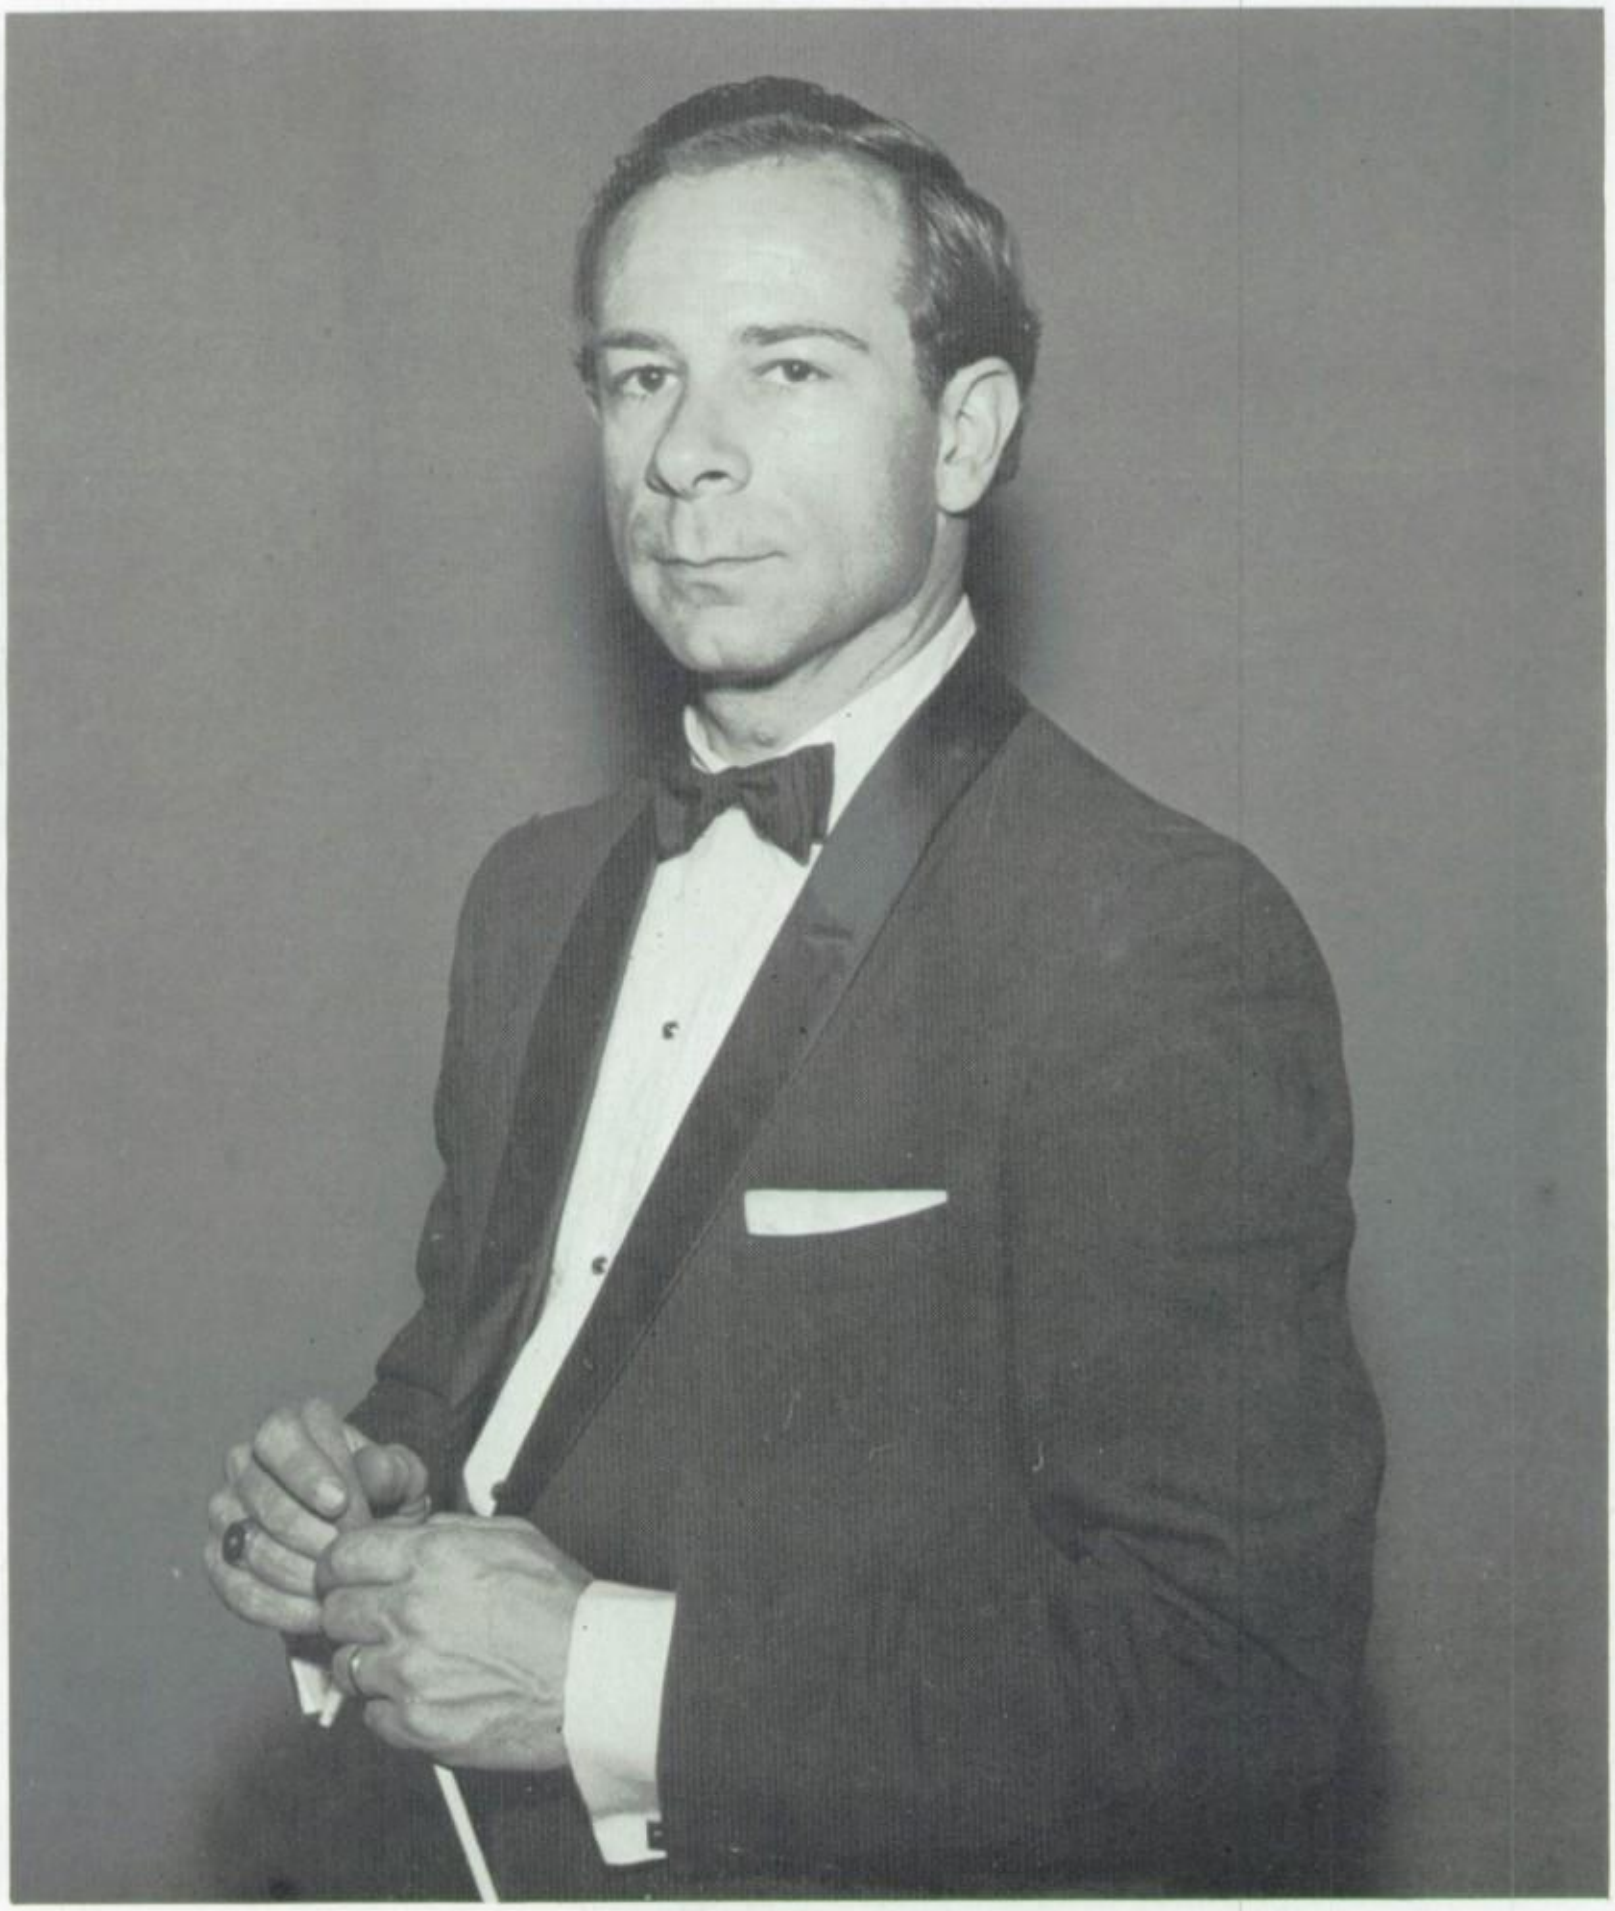
DEDICATION

Mr. Orrin C. Cross III



We wish to thank you, Mr. Cross, for your continual inspiration and assistance in making the Washington High School Band one of the best. Your ingenuity has made many a half-time an enjoyable one. The endless hours you devote to our productions are appreciated by all the students.

To you, Mr. Cross, the 1967 WASHINGTONIAN is respectfully dedicated.

TO THE SENIORS

HOPE FOR THE FUTURE

It has been said that the future depends upon the younger generation. This sounds trite, I know, but Americans have a strong belief in the future. In fact, our faith in the future is one of the basic tenets of our democracy. We count on youth to make changes which will make this country a better place in which to live. I am suggesting to you one area in which improvement is needed.

Lately I have noticed many adults violating what I consider one of the basic principles of a democratic organization; that is, after a problem has been presented and discussed, and a solution has been voted upon, the minority refuses to follow the dictates of the majority. It has always been my understanding that when a democratic group brings something to a vote, its members are agreeing beforehand to abide by the results of that vote. Not so today! More and more, the minority wants to "pick up its marbles and go home," because the vote did not turn out in its favor.

I am not advocating for one minute that the minority cease working for a change. It is not only their right, it is their responsibility to work for that change. However, it is also their responsibility to abide by the dictates of the majority until such a change is brought about by a new vote.

I fear that our continued failure to abide by the "rules of the game" will lead to the destruction of democratic rule. I believe our only hope lies in you, the younger generation, and in the generations that will follow. I am counting on you to restore one of the basic rules we inherited from the Generation of '76 — the rule of the majority.

Robert L. Callahan

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

We, our generation, will be responsible for the making of the nation in a few years. Human wisdom is needed to do a good job. Exhibiting both personal courage and conviction, as you have in the past, will enable you to attain this wisdom.

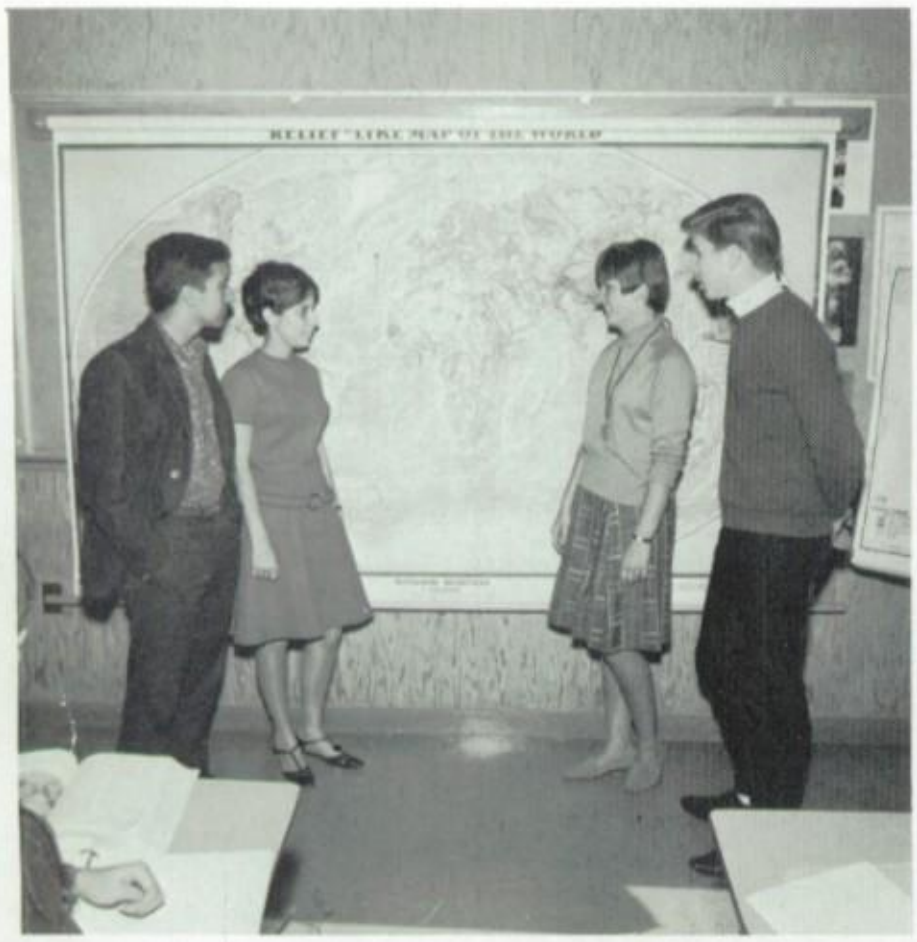
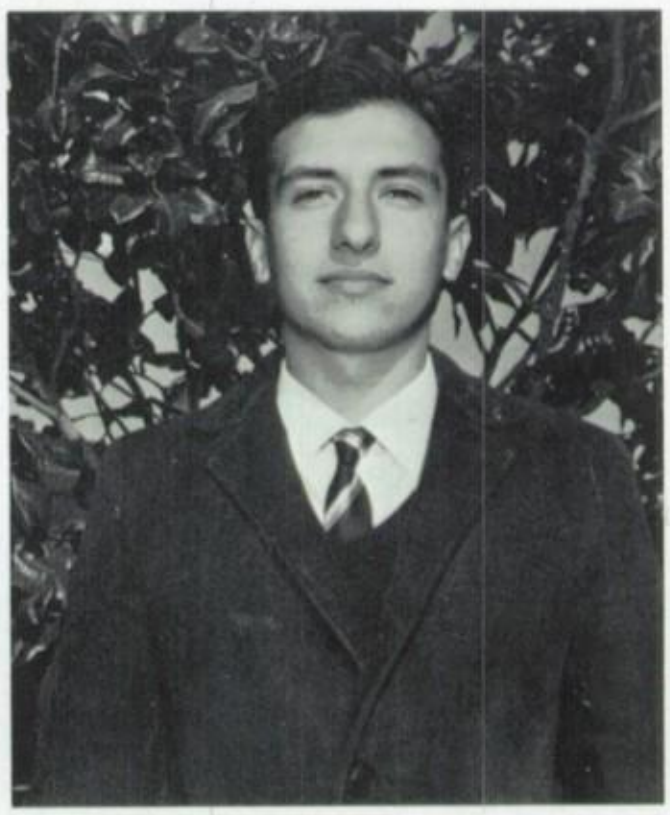
FOREIGN

Rosa Maria Aceveda Noriega, our foreign exchange student from Piura, Peru, high in the Andes Mountains, says, "Hola!" While attending Washington, Rosa stayed with junior Maureen Morrow. Of her stay in America Rosa says, "I think that the United States is a lovely country, and I would like to return soon. I find it hard to explain all the wonderful experiences I have had."

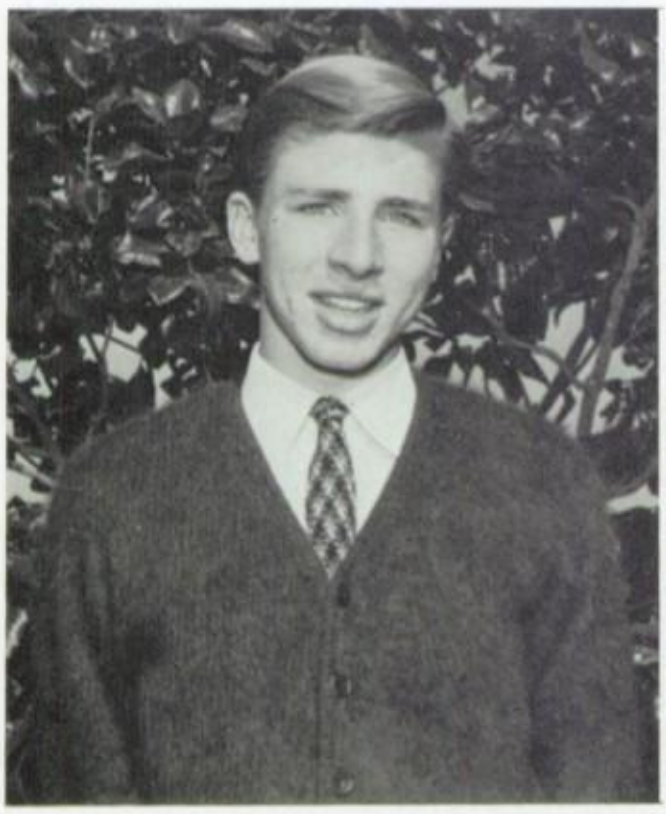




An "Hola" comes from our other South American exchange student, Guillermo Jose Domenech Martinez, from Montevideo, Uruguay. He has come to us under the sponsorship of the "Youth for Understanding" program. He finds our teenagers and those of Uruguay to be very much alike and finds the major differences between our countries to be economic, with the United States having "a higher standard of living and a stronger middle class."

EXCHANGE

This past year Cory Ricker represented Washington High in Bethal, Transvaal, South Africa. The School she attended was Hoogenhout High, a school with an enrollment of 550 students. Cory comments, "I was very happy staying with the Hoffman family and their two daughters, Annemare and Elefriede."



In his native Trbea-Trarbach, Germany, Bernd Pfalzgraf greets friends with a "Wie geht es dir?" His stay with Mark Bromley Bernd describes as "an experience!" He summarizes his feelings about the United States with the comment, "Well, it certainly is different." His only complaint is that "American girls play soccer—a disgrace!"

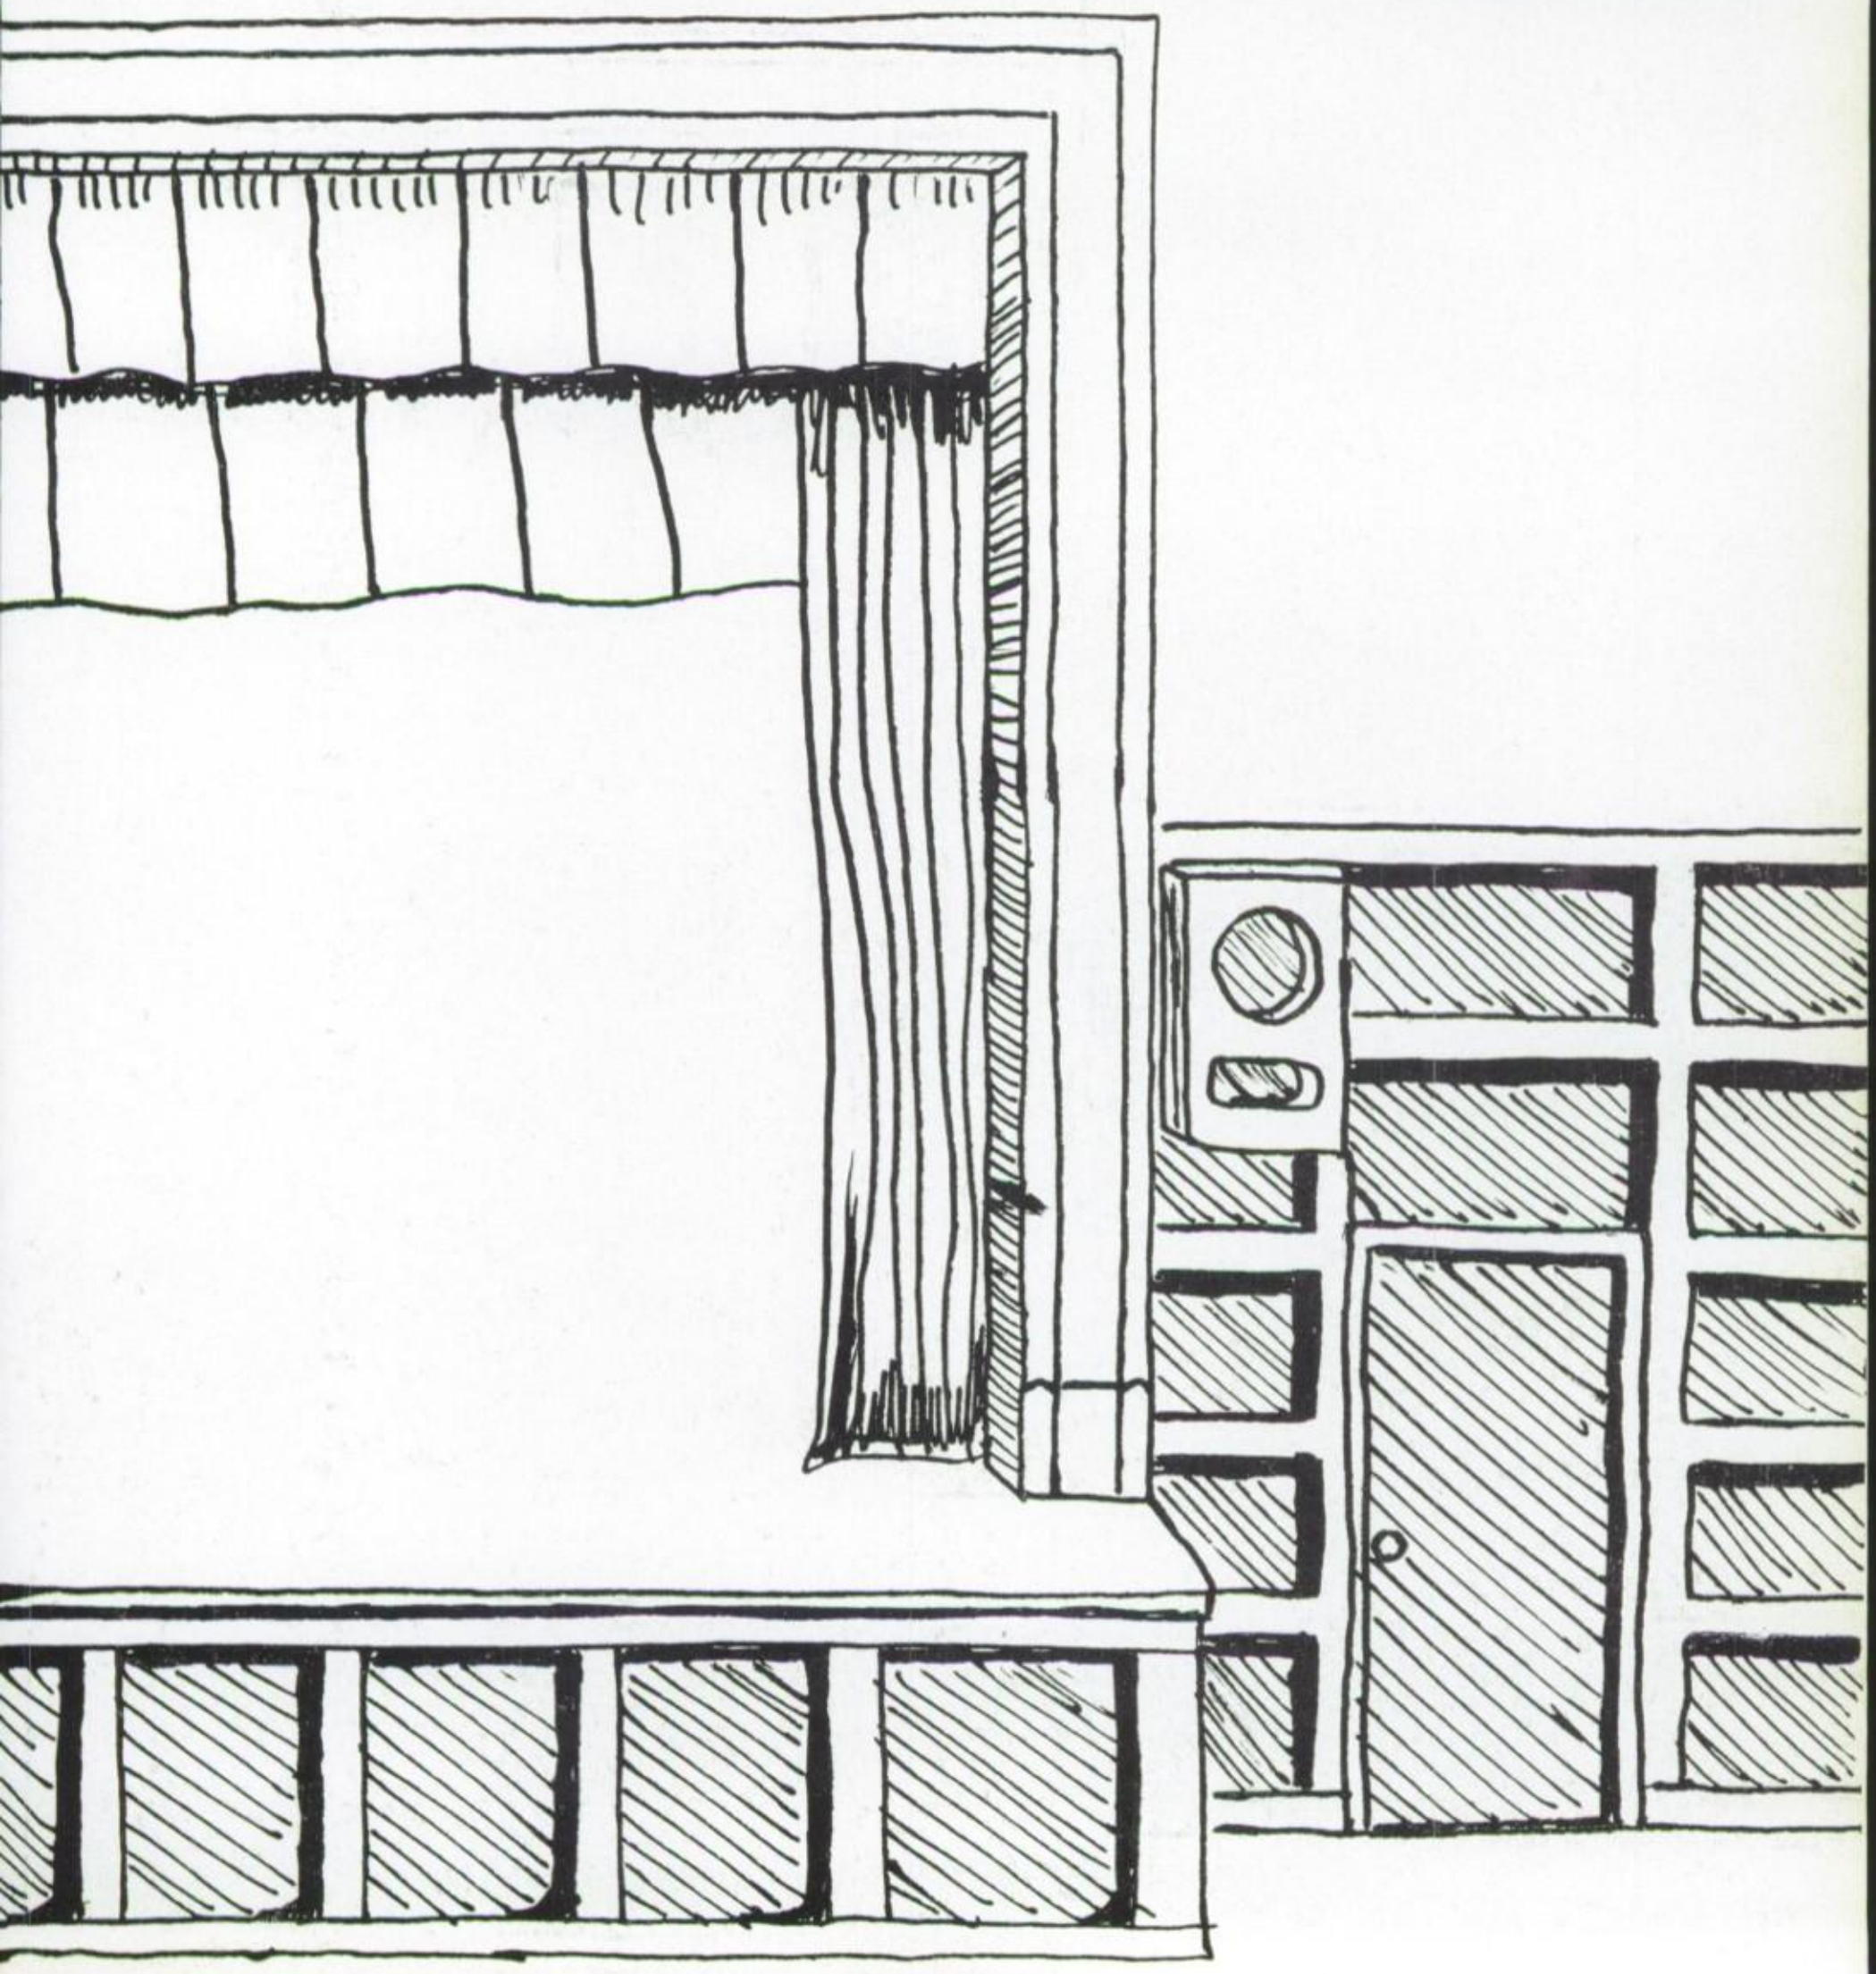
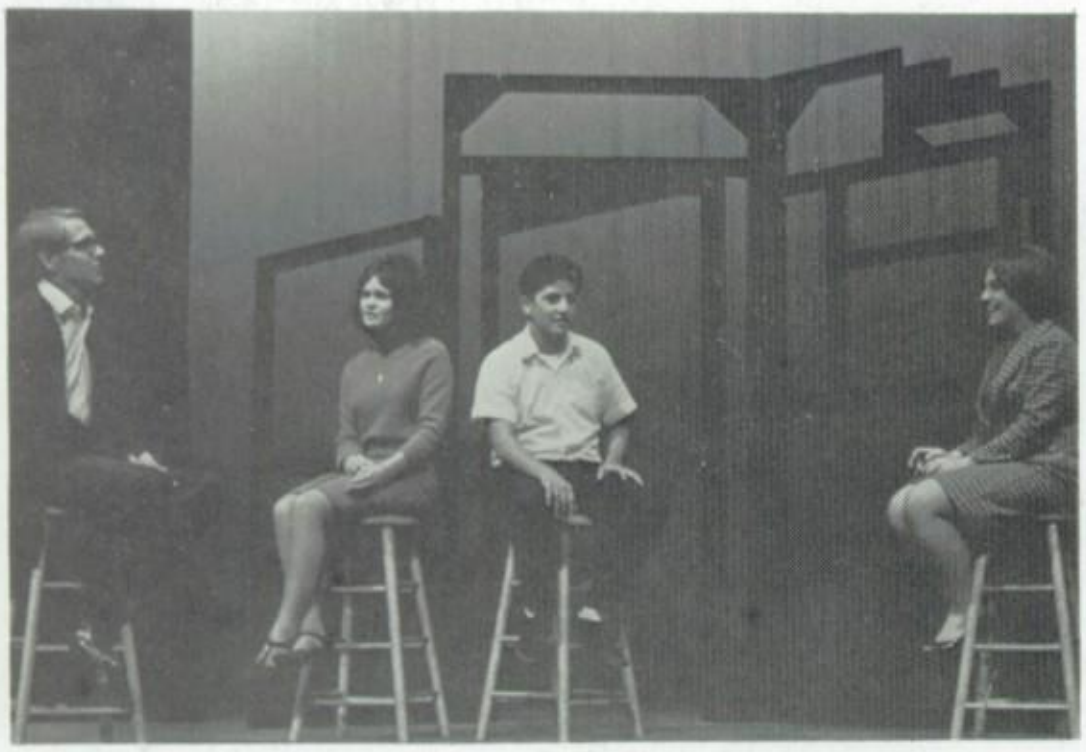
PRODUCTIONS



DRAMA



Ralph Mahler, Kathy Hattig, Charlie Martinez, Linda Venable.

The Drama Workshop program was designed to give more stage experience to the students involved in various drama classes — acting, directing, costuming, make-up, and stagecraft.

The first workshop was presented November 4, 1966. It consisted of four plays. They were "Bell, Book, and Candle," "Impromptu," "A Doll's House," "The White Dove," and "Joint Owner in Spain."

WORKSHOP

The acting and directing classes of Washington High presented their second Drama Workshop production January 13, 1967. There were seven plays presented by various students from the classes of Mrs. Lyla Anderson and Mrs. Pat LaRock.

The plays were the "Bickersons," with Judi Mento and Scott Young; "Fortune Is a Cowboy," with Cathy Silva and Chris Jungermann; a musical pantomime by Yvonne Moy; "Of Mice and Men," with Jim Sills and Tom Heskett.

"Tea and Sympathy" featured Lou Williams and Sandy Woodmansee, and "The Monster" was enacted by Linda Bola, Linda Demetrick, Jory Faucett, Sally Fernandez, Susan Robinson, Ginny Steele and Ralph Mahler. Between the scenes, four little old ladies exchanged snappy repartee.

SOUTH PACIFIC

This colorful play, winner of countless honors, including the coveted Pulitzer Prize, is set on an island in the South Pacific during the Second World War. The central story concerns Ensign Nellie Forbush, a young Navy nurse, and Emile de Becque, a greying, wealthy French planter. The two are in love, though Nellie fears obstacles to their marriage because of their disparate backgrounds. The secondary love story is one of the most poignant in the literature of the theatre. It is that of a young Marine, Lt. Joseph Cable, and Liat, the beautiful young Tonkinese daughter of Bloody Mary, the native woman who sells souvenirs to the men stationed on the island. When de Becque accompanies Cable on a dangerous mission to another island, Nellie realizes that nothing is as important as the love she feels for the Frenchman. Their story ends happily. Background is provided by the vivid tropical settings, by romantic Bali Hai in the distance, and by the varied assemblage of sailors, Marines, and Seabees on the island.

South Pacific was performed on April 28 and 29 and May 5 and 6.

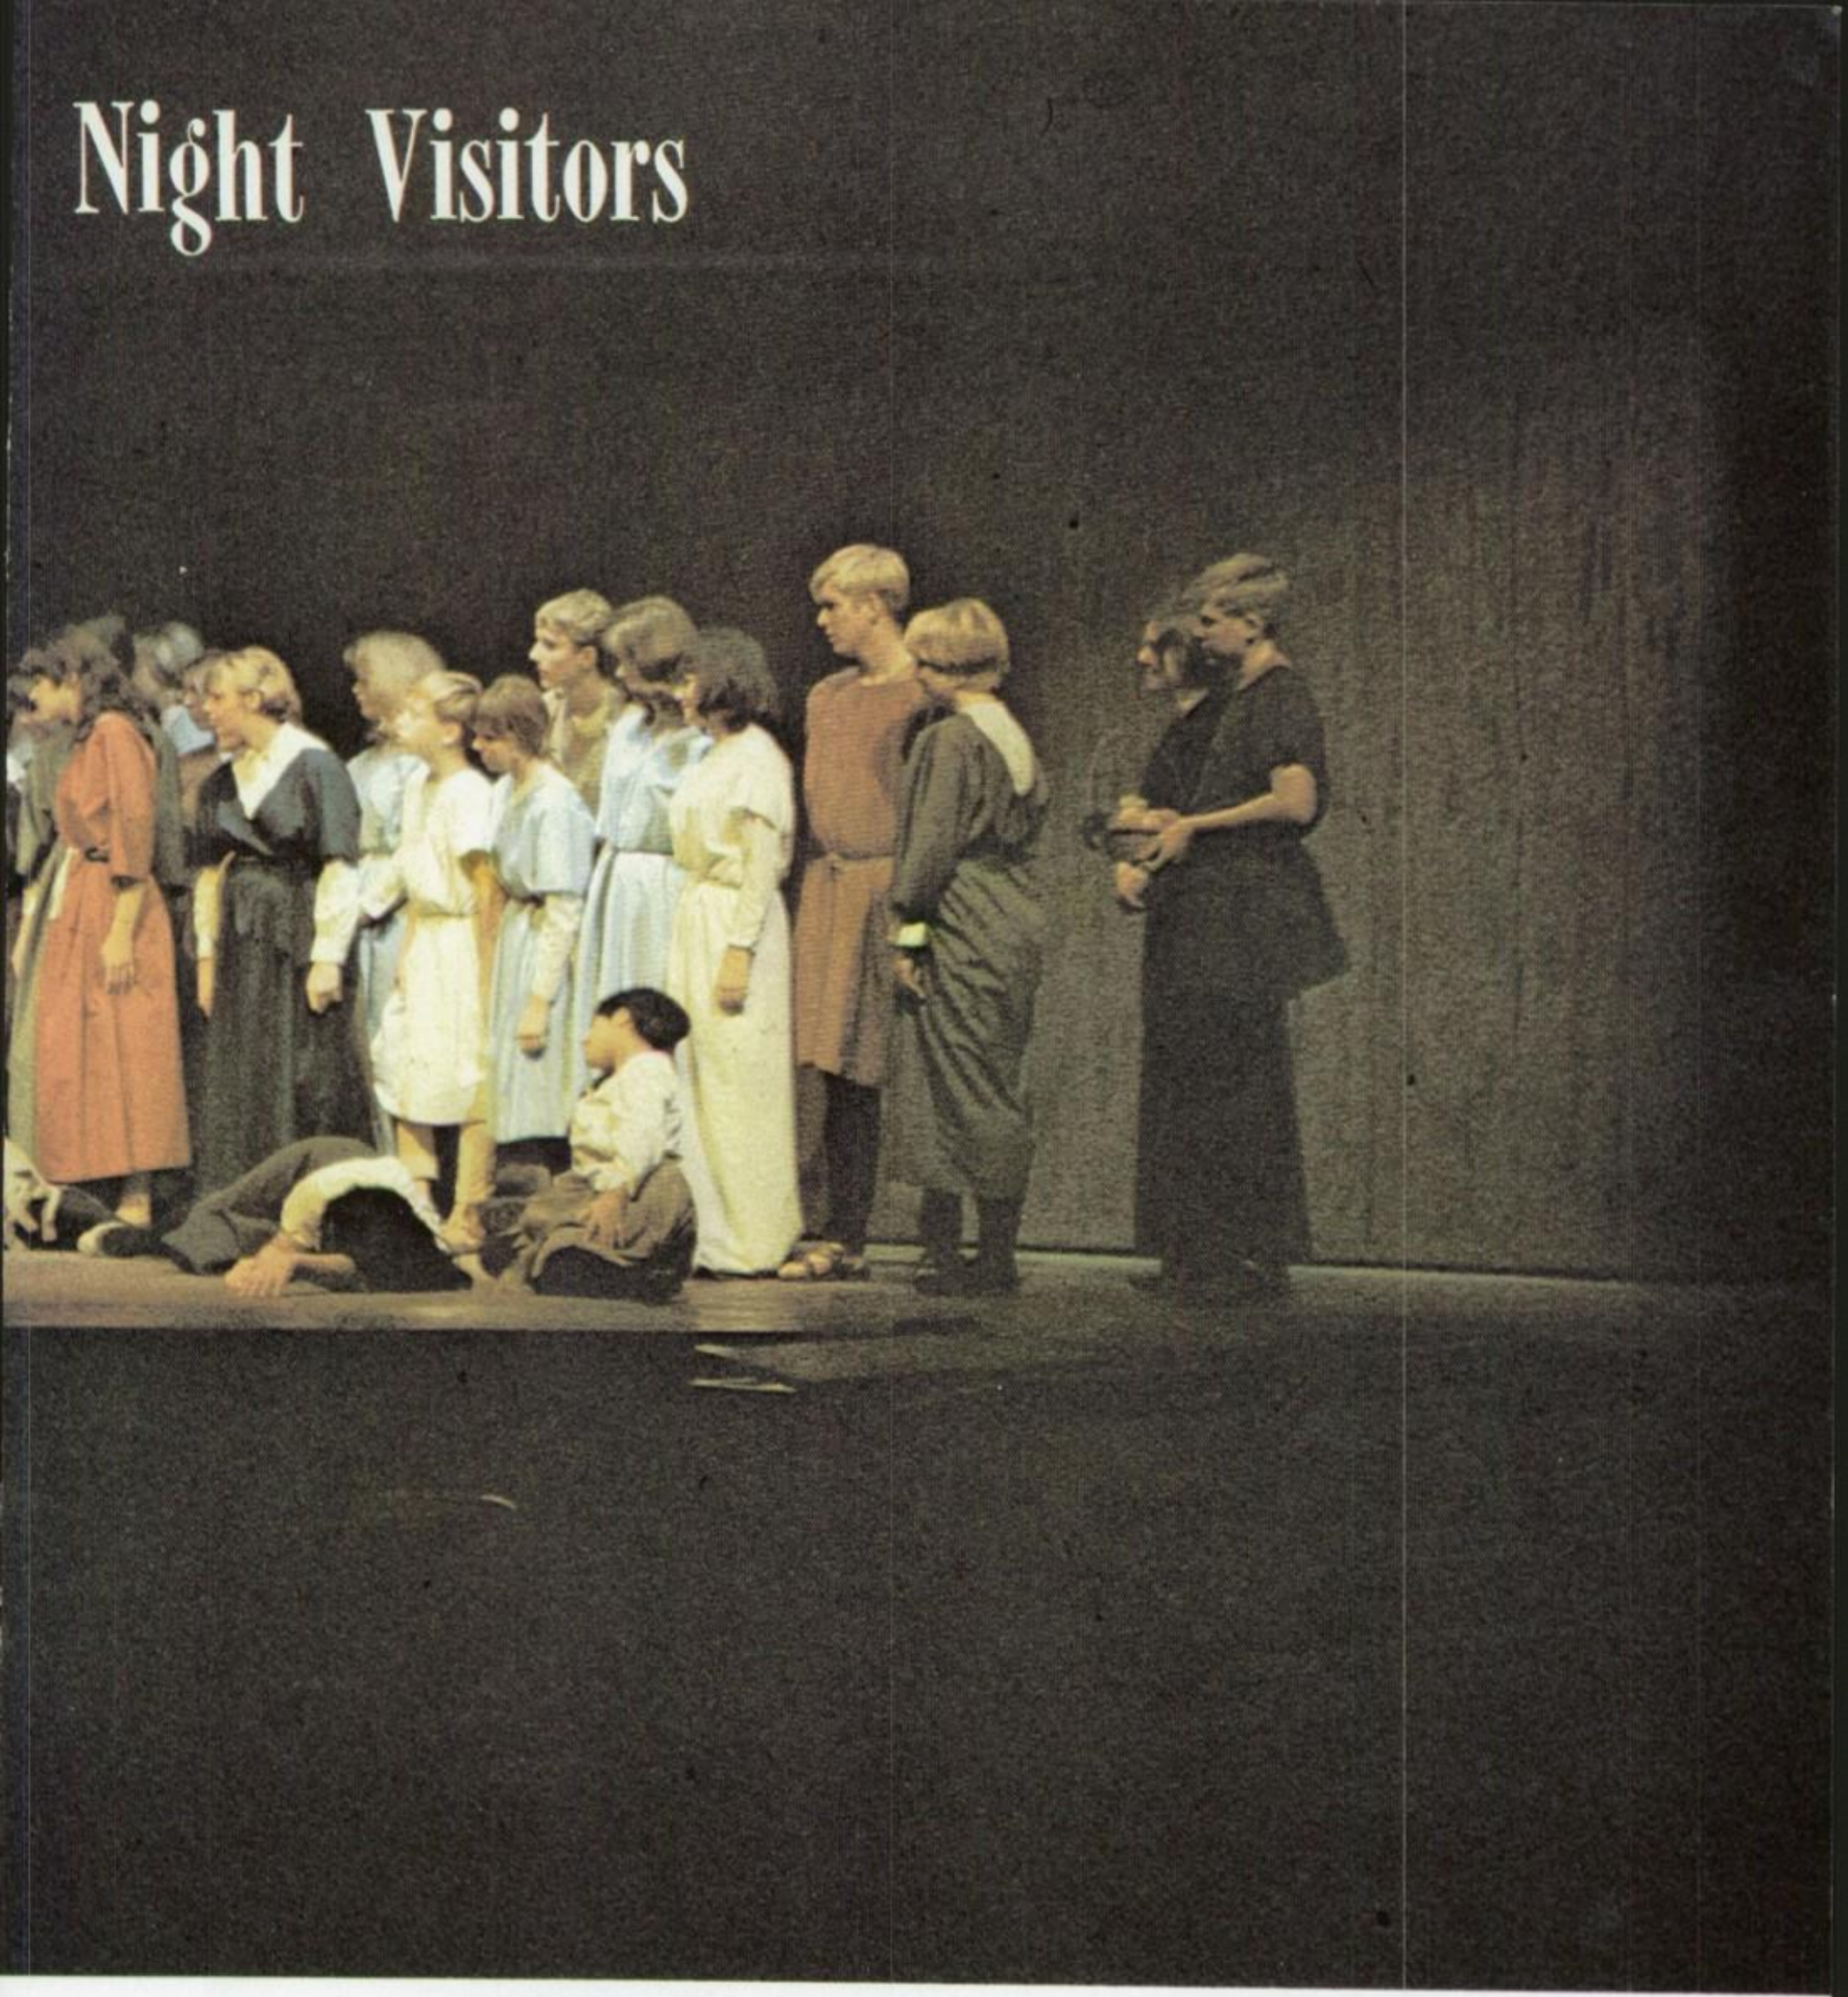
Night Visitors



It is a rare occasion that a high school attempts to produce an opera, and December marked the first time that an opera of any type was presented in Fremont. "Amahl" has been sung many times in the past years, sometimes even staged and costumed, but rarely with a full thirty-two piece orchestra.

Two performances were offered at Washington High School: Friday, December 16 and Saturday, December 17. The total performance lasted fifty minutes. The opera, described by its composer, Gian-Carlo Menotti, as an "opera for children because it tries to recapture my own childhood," enhanced the Christmas season. Orrin C. Cross III was the stage director and orchestra conductor; Dwight Thornburg was the musical and vocal director.

John
You are a real nice guy, not bad chicken not really! Have fun. Love always Melinda
Iwas 1st!
